Toronto, May 27th

Dear Miss Parlow,

Although the days have run away with me, my impressions of Sunday night, May 17th, are altogether delightful. The dance filled our souls and the luscious eats filled our

I hope she really did rest next day.

Apprecatively yours, bodies - to capacity. It was certainly a joyful occasion and a lovely memory.

Thank you immensely for including me. I have written home a glowing account of it all. As Mrs Seldon Smith said, "It was just like Mrs Parlow's wonderful parties in California". It was especially good to have the visit with your mother, too.
